

SIX-MONTH PROBATION CHECK-IN FOR LEADERS

The following instructions will walk you through how a Leader completes a Six-Month Probation Check-in for an employee.

NAVIGATION

Login into myUFL and navigate to:

Nav Bar > Main Menu > Human Resources > Manager Self Service > UF Engaged > Performance Documents > Current Documents

- To complete a Six Month Probation Check-in, click on the employee's name. If there is more than one row, make sure that you click on the row featuring the Six Month Probation Check-in Document Type.

NOTE: The Due Date is five days earlier than the end of the Period. The five day period allows for Human Resources to review in the case of a request for an extension. If you do not complete the Probation Check-in by the date listed under Period End Date, the employee will default to have successfully completed their probationary period.

UF Engaged - Instructions

The Six-Month Probation Check-in provides an opportunity for you to communicate and document clear, timely, and meaningful feedback about an employee's performance during the six-month probationary period. The feedback provided in this Check-in will determine if the employee has successfully completed the probationary period. Please complete the three sections below to reflect on the employee's performance and to set goals moving forward.

UF Probationary Status

3. You have two choices, Probation Extended and Successfully Completed. Click Successfully Completed, if applicable.

NOTE: If you are considering extending the employee’s probationary period, please contact your department Human Resources representative. If you request an extension of the Probation Period, this document will be routed to Employee Relations for review and approval. Even if being extended, the review still must be completed, with specific feedback for improvement; do not submit a blank or incomplete form.

4. There are four text entry fields you must fill out for the Six Month Probation Check-in. Note that below where you enter your comments, you will see your employee’s comments if they have entered any. Fill out the first text entry field.

5. Do not forget to Spell Check your Comments by clicking the Spell Check icon.

6. Next, use the Check Language tool, which will review your Manager Comments for words that may not be appropriate for a Check-in. For example, managers should not reference that someone using FMLA in UF Engaged. Click Check Language.

7. If a word is flagged by the Check Language tool, you can change your word choice by clicking the Change button.

NOTE: There are cases when Check Language will identify words that can remain in your comments. For example, if the sentence read “Albert was instrumental in developing an FMLA process for the University,” that would be an appropriate use of FMLA. In that case, you would click the Ignore button.

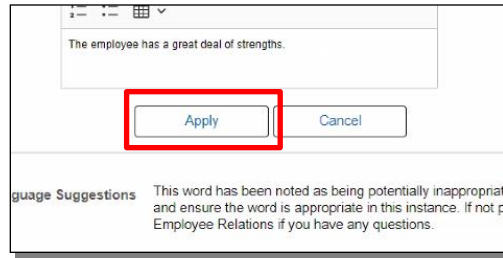

If you have questions or concerns about words identified by the Check Language tool, please contact your department Human Resources representative.

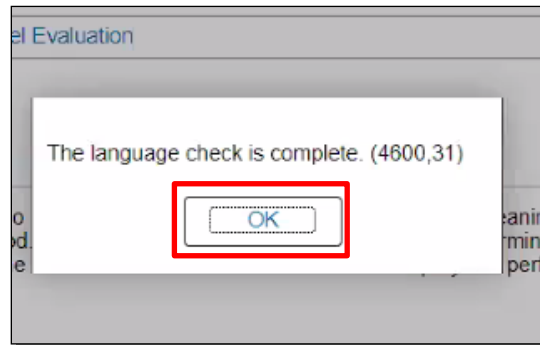

8. A text editor will appear. You will need to make adjustments as appropriate. In this example, the sentence The employee took FMLA will be deleted.

9. Click the Apply button.

10. The language has been modified. Click the OK button.

11. Next, scroll down and fill out the remaining text entry fields.

12. At any point while filling out the Six Month Probation Check-in, you can save your progress by clicking the Save button. If you save your progress, you can exit the page and return to add more information later. Click the Save button to continue.

NOTE: Best practice is to click the Save button often when working in UF Engaged. UF Engaged does not automatically save your work for you. You do not want to lose your work due to not saving. Some find it helpful to type their Manager Assessments in Word, and then copy the text over into the UF Engaged Check-In.

13. Once you have saved your Six Month Probation Check-in, you can Print in Word. This function creates a Word Document version of the Check-in. Click Print in Word.

NOTE: Depending on your browser of choice, the steps to download a file may vary. This simulation demonstrates how to download and open a file using Chrome.

14. Click the downloaded file to open it.

15. This document can be saved for your records. Click the Close icon to continue.

16. Once you have finalized your Six Month Probation Check-in, click the Submit for Approval button.

Best Practice: Time permitting, have the Six Month Probation Check-in conversation prior to clicking Submit. Please consider if any additional information should be added as a result of the Six Month Probation Check-in conversation.
